UIU came to the limelight in a very short span of time on the basis of academic excellence and through the appropriate publicity in newspapers and electronic media. The Public Relations Office is regularly contributing to the overall publicity and branding of United International University. Everyday a compilation of newspaper clipping on important and relevant news items is sent to the high officials of the University. The representatives of Public Relations Office attend all types of programs and seminars of the University and collect information and photographs. In important programs, journalists are invited for the coverage in both print and electronic media. Before the beginning of a trimester, a four-month advertisement strategy is planned after discussion with higher authorities. Apart from that, in case of special campaigns, Public Relations Office takes steps after discussion with the Concerned authority. Public Relations Office regularly publishes the UIU Prospectus, different flyers and all kinds of printing related matter. Public Relations Office also takes the responsibility of designing, printing and publishing the printing matter of UIU. Public Relations Office collects and preserves all kind of important information related to the Private University and UGC. It also arranges Press Conferences, Opinion Exchange Sessions and many other programs with journalist. The Public Relations Office regularly maintains good relationship with media persons of both print and electronic media and assists in increasing student enrollment. Browse Office Personnel
