About Shaheed Irfan Library

Who we are

The Shaheed Irfan Library is dedicated to supporting and enhancing the university's academic and research initiatives. It provides access to a vast array of scholarly resources, offering services such as circulation, reference assistance, counseling, bibliographical documentation, and retrospective searches.

Computing Facilities

The library is equipped with 41 fully networked computers with internet access, allowing students to conduct research efficiently. There are also designated areas with power outlets for students to connect laptops and other electronic devices.

Digital Research

The Shaheed Irfan Library offers a range of digital research tools, including an extensive collection of books, journals, CDs, magazines, and a customized digital database. Users can also explore research materials, slides, and audiovisual cassettes.

Periodicals and Publications

The library subscribes to various periodicals and publications covering multiple disciplines, including business, management, computer science, economics, environmental studies, English literature, history, culture, psychology, sociology, and religion. The collection continues to expand, currently exceeding five figures in book count. Additionally, the library subscribes to seven daily newspapers and five magazines.

Audio Visual Facilities

The library provides digital audio-video kiosks that allow students to access a collection of study materials in DVC format.
